is currently reported in Jersey City that this purchase is a new move in the pian of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to shut out the Raitmore and Ohio Railroad, but no one seems to have any authentic information about it. It is rumored that the old dummy steam road from Jersey City to Bayonne will be revived in order to make quicker connections and shorten the tr.p which now consumes nearly an hour and a half by the horse cars.

William Boien, age nineteen, was stealing cherries on Friday night in the yard of an old house on the Valley Road near the Mountain House, at Orange, N. J., with two companions. Charles Smith, an umbrella peddler, who rents the place, took a shotgun, went out ami ordered Bolen off. Boien said: "Bon't shoot. Til go!" but Smith fired. The charge of buckshot entered Bolen's right shoulder, chest, neck and face. He was taken to the Memorial Hospital. The left eye was entirely destroyed and the right eye badly injured. It is feared that several grains of shot have entered his brain, and his condition is critical. Smith went to South Orange and gave himself up.

ARGUMENT BEFORE THE GENERAL TERM OF THE SUPREME COURT-DECISION RESERVED.

Argument was heard yesterday by the General Term of the Supreme Court—Presiding Judge Van Brunt and | P.M.—Sandy Hook. 6.19 | Gov. Isl'd. 6.28 | Hell Gate. 7:55 of the proceedings which resulted in a decision by Justice Lawrence at Special Term adverse to the claim of th hotel-keepers, as presented in the babess corpus pro ceedings in the cases of James H. Breslin and Charles N. Vilas, that they had the right to sell liquor to their guests on Sunday. E. L. Andrews, who opened the dis-cussion on behalf of the appellants, examined the rights f hotel-keepers under the common law and that from the earliest period guests of hotels had been specially excepted from the inhibition of Sunday traffic. In the acts of 1857 and 1873 there was an explicit reservation of the common law rights of hotel-keepers.

Corporation Counsel Lacombe insisted upon the cor-rectness of the views which he originally presented before Justice Lawrence. He said that the law in express terms prohibited the selling of liquor by hotel-keepers on Sunday and examined the intent of the Legislature, which, he maintained, was clearly in accordance with Colonel Ingersoll argued that an innkeeper had a right by common law and a proper construction of the statutes to sell liquor to guests and travellers on Sunday that the right to sell did not depend upon the language used in the Heense, and that the Excise Commissioners had no power to legislate on the subject. He repeated that for thirty years no man had before made a complaint against a hotel-keeper for selling on Sunday. By the language of the law it was just as much a crime to serve wine at one's own table as at the table of a hotel. The contemporaneous construction of the law for so long a period had the binding force of an enactment.

The decision was reserved. Presiding Judge Van Brunt and after the adjournment that a decision could not be pronected before the latter part of this week.

Mr. Andrews said last evening that he was confident of a favorable decision this week, and in the meantime his elients would serve no Equors on Sundays: this was due is respect to the court. The case was strengthened, he said, by the discovery of an argument in a case before the Sunday law applies to two classes of sales, the sale of liquor at the bar and of liquor to be drunk off the premise. He deprecated the criticisms of Judge Lawrence, and believed that he would welcome a decision averse to his own, as much as any one. that the right to sell did not depend upon

DR. STORRS ON THE ANDOVER HERESY HEARTILY APPROVING THE REMOVAL OF PROFES-

SOR SMYTH-NOTHING ELSE POSSIBLE. The Rev. Dr. Elchard S. Storrs, of Lrooklyn, is one of the most representative of the Congregational elergymen in this State-for that matter, in the Middle States generally—and his opinion in regard to the decision of the Board of Visitors in the Andover heresy cases may be taken as a fair indication of the feeling in the matter among the Congregationa churches here. Dr. Storrs said last night that after reading through the report of the Visiting Board, as printed in full in yesterday's TRIBUNE, he felt con-vinced that it was entirely justified. "I cannot speak for anybody but myself, of course," said the clergyman, "but it seems to me that no other result could well have been arrived at. It also had full from the company to shut out the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, but no one accessed on was mainly one of fact—whether Dr. Smyth and others were not employing the resources of the seminary to teach doctrines in opposition to those to maintain which the institution was specifically endowed. The mater of fact was easy to determine the Mountain House, at Orange, N.J., with two companions. Charles Smith, an umbrella peddler, who rents the place, took a sholgan, went out and ordered Bolen off. Bolen sald:

"As to Dr. Smyth's holding his professorship any longer, I think the case is clear enough. The Board of Visitors, it is true, has no power to elect, but has the power to confirm and remove. MISS HOYT RELEASED ON BAIL. Miss Mary Irene Hoyt, whose eccentric behavior has more than once attracted public attention, did not remain long in Hackensack Jail on Friday night. Justice Dutton had her committed there because she had given a servant girl a beating and defied the court when summoned before it to explain matters. Dr. John L. Barton, ber family physician, who lives at No. 439 Lexington-ave., in this city, came to her relief. An application to Judge Skinner secured a reduction of her ball from $1,000 to $250, and that amount being furnished she was released from [ail about midnight, and with her physician came to New-

York.

The matter will be over until the Grand Jury meets on the second Tuesday in September, when, it an indictment is found against her, she will have to satisfy New-Jersey justice. But it is probable that the matter will be allowed to dtop.

Dr. Barton declined yesterday to say anything about her mental condition.

PROBABLY ANOTHER SUICIDE. Policeman Henry, of the Steamboat Squad, yesterday morning saw the body of a woman floating in the slip at the foot of Leroy.st., and dragged it ashore. There were no marks of violence on the body, and it was believed that the woman had committed suicide by drowing. She was about forty years of age, with dork brown hair, and wore a black cashmere dress. There were gold earrings in her ears, and in her pocket were $5 75 and an English hair beenly. Her body was sent to the Morgue to await identification.
